A woman with curly red hair and glasses, wearing a dark blue cardigan and a patterned scarf, stands in a bright room with large windows. She is smiling and holding a white rectangular sign with both hands. The sign has the text "Teaching is not like a walk in a park." printed on it. In the background, a man in a dark jacket is leaning over a table, writing in a notebook. The room has wooden chairs and tables, and the floor is covered with light-colored square tiles. The windows look out onto a landscape with trees.

Teaching is not like a walk in a park.
